Welcome

Welcome, and congratulations on deciding to serve as a Forum chair! Here you will find best practices for you as Forum chair, as well as valuable information on how to plan out your year.

Your mission

As a Forum chair, your mission is to build vitality and health within your chapter's Forums.

To accomplish this, you will work to ensure that every member wishing to participate has access to the experience of Forum through training, placement and moderator management. You will have member success conversations focused on the Forum journey to bring member value.

Why is this important?

82 percent of members cited the quality of their Forum experience as the primary reason for continuing their EO membership. You are the Forum advocate on your chapter board for every chapter member!
