Basic information about forum

EO Forum is one of the most important development tools within the Entrepreneurs' Organization (EO), designed to support experience sharing and mutual learning in small, trusted groups of entrepreneurs. EO members are assigned to forums, which typically consist of 6-10 people.

Key Features of EO Forum:

1. Privacy and Confidentiality – Forum members meet regularly (e.g., once a month) and discuss business and personal matters, maintaining full confidentiality, which fosters open and honest conversations.
2. Experience Sharing – Instead of giving advice, members share their experiences from similar situations, helping others draw conclusions and make better decisions.
3. Personal and Professional Support – EO Forum is not just a platform for business development, but also a place where members can discuss personal challenges, stress management, family relationships, or health, benefiting from the experiences of others.
4. Structured Meetings – Meetings follow a pre-set structure to ensure efficiency, usually with an agenda that includes reviewing personal and professional successes and challenges, as well as discussions on selected topics.

Purpose of EO Forum:

The main purpose of the forum is the personal and professional growth of EO members through peer group support, building deeper relationships, and sharing valuable experiences that can help others develop their businesses and personal lives.

5% reflections

"5% Reflections" are moments during EO forum meetings where members share the most personal and intimate experiences, which usually represent the 5% of their lives they rarely speak about publicly. It is a space for honest, deep dialogue, allowing for strong relationships and mutual support within the group of entrepreneurs, both professionally and personally.

Each forum member prepares their "5% Reflections" in the form of a simple table.

Below you will find some examples of such tables.

Example no. 1

Area* *	Feelings	Headline	Significance (5%)
Work	Stress, Anxiety, Confusion	The company is growing rapidly, but I feel like I'm losing control over it.	I've always been in control, but now I'm losing balance between the company and personal life. I'm afraid that further growth may lead to burnout.
Family	Sadness, Disappointment, Concern	Due to lack of time, I'm starting to drift away from my family.	Family relationships are my foundation, but now I feel like I'm neglecting them. This worries me greatly because I find it hard to function without their support.
Personal	Loneliness, Anxiety, Resignation	I've been struggling with a sense of emptiness and lack of purpose for some time.	I've always had clear goals, but now I feel like I've lost my sense of direction. The lack of motivation is starting to affect my daily actions and well-being.

Example no. 2

Area	Feelings* *	Headline	Significance (5%)
Work	Uncertainty, Frustration, Anger	I'm struggling with a major project that's stalled despite my efforts.	It's frustrating because I'm putting in a lot of effort, but the results aren't coming. I feel that my role as a leader is being undermined by this lack of progress.

Area	Feelings *	Headline	Significance (5%)
Family	Gratitude, Love, Exhaustion	I've been spending more time with my family lately, but I still feel drained.	I'm grateful for the time with my loved ones, but I can't fully focus on it because of work problems. I'm worried that I'm neglecting important relationships.
Personal	Fear, Doubt, Sadness	I feel like I'm not making progress in my personal development, and it's overwhelming.	I've always strived for self-improvement, but now I feel stuck. This makes me feel like I'm not living up to my own expectations.

Example no. 3

Area	Feelings	Headline	Significance (5%)
Work	Excitement, Stress, Anticipation	The new project I'm leading has great potential, but the pressure is immense.	I'm excited because this project could be groundbreaking for the company, but I fear the expectations are so high that it will be hard to meet them.
Family	Concern, Frustration, Impatience	My partner and I are having strained relations due to my lack of time for the family.	Family has always been my top priority, but now I feel like I'm neglecting them because of my intense work. This creates tensions that are hard for me to understand and resolve.
Personal	Contentment, Pride, Fatigue	I've recently focused on improving my physical fitness, which has shown results.	I'm proud of what I've achieved, but I feel like I'm depleting my resources. I wonder if I'm investing too much energy in one area while neglecting others.

Deep dive

Deep Dive in the Entrepreneurs' Organization (EO) is a special moment during forum meetings where a participant has the opportunity to share an important, unresolved, and emotionally complex problem. The session involves an open and deep exploration of internal struggles, while the rest of the forum members listen and share their resonating experiences, avoiding giving advice or solving the problem.

The goal of Deep Dive is to reach the deepest emotions, needs, and challenges the participant is facing, helping them better understand their difficulties. It is a space for authentic reflection and sharing in an atmosphere of trust and confidentiality.

5. Looking Forward

- My hope, dream or ideal outcome is: I want the company to run smoothly without my constant involvement, allowing me to regain balance between work and personal life.
- What would failing mean for me and those around me? Failure would mean that the company might start to fall apart, and I could lose not only the business but also my family relationships.
- What would success mean for me and those around me? Success would bring me more peace and time for my family, and the company would run efficiently without my constant presence.
- Are there any beliefs or biases I might need to shift in order to get what I want? I need to break the belief that no one can do it better than me and start trusting others.
- My core opportunity or dilemma might be: The key challenge is learning how to delegate effectively and trust the team.
